

> Facts and figures

Application deadline: June 29th, 2008

Induction Day:: September 28th ,2008

Intake: October 1st, 2008

Class end: End of March 2009

Courses length & From October to end of March

duration: Class schedule: 9:00 am to 12:30 pm
2:00 pm to 5:30 pm

Course language: English

Educational Team: Industrial experts, academics, Researchers

Course Location: South of France – “Ecole des Mines de saint Etienne” campus in Gardanne Close to Aix en provence

Internship duration: 6 months (24 weeks):
after the course period (From March to September)

Internship wage average: between 800 and 1200 euros

Kind of degree: Post-graduate degree

Job Opportunities: - R&D

- Component designer
- Application developer
- Team Manager
- Security Expert
- Security evaluator (lab)
- Consultant

Scholarship: Your internship salary could help you support the tuition fee But you also contact French embassy to apply for.

Accommodation: Halls of residence accommodation on the “Ecole des Mines” campus.

Accommodation cost: 450 euros per month less with housing benefits see campus part (around 100 euros).

IT Facilities: Studio flats have a wireless internet access (included in the rent).

Cost of living: about 600 euros per month including accommodation